A Moment of Review

Nonprofits like WOSU Public Media are always looking ahead. What are the new opportunities that might best serve our community? I want to spend just a moment looking back. We want to report out to you, our “investors” about the year 2014. You are part of the over 22,500 members and 200 corporate and foundation supporters and partners who make WOSU Public Media possible.

Here are a few data gems from our new 2014 Community Report:

• WOSU won over 16 prestigious awards for local programming over the past year including “Best Radio News Operation in Ohio” for 89.7 NPR News and two Emmy Awards for WOSU TV.

• A record 7,734 contributors are now sustaining members of WOSU.

• Columbus Neighborhoods: Worthington and Clintonville attracted WOSU’s largest viewing audience within the week each aired.

• Classical 101 broadcast 58 local concerts in 2014.

• 19,733 people have downloaded the WOSU Public Media Mobile App.

• 133 volunteers contributed time and expertise to WOSU.

• 1,045 guests have appeared on All Sides with Ann Fisher and Columbus on the Record.

• Over 12,000 children were reached by our Ready To Learn® preschool program via 75 workshops for 1,035 caregivers.

As a supporter, we invite you to review the entire WOSU Public Media Community Report for 2014 online at: wosu.org/communityreport

Reveal Comes to 89.7 NPR News

Public radio listeners hungry for groundbreaking investigative reporting have a new source of information. Reveal, a multiplatform investigative reporting project, hosted by Al Leston, airs monthly on 89.7 NPR News. Produced by The Center for Investigative Reporting (CIR) and the Public Radio Exchange (PRX), Reveal promises to hold the powerful accountable, reveal waste and fraud of taxpayer dollars, uncover human rights violations and expose environmental degradation.

The CIR is nationally respected for setting the highest journalistic standards and for its signature approach to investigative reporting and collaboration.

In addition to the radio program, you can get the podcast of Reveal on demand on the WOSU Public Media Mobile App.

Listen to Reveal on 89.7 at 7pm on:
- Friday, March 20th
- Friday, April 17th
- Friday, May 15th
- Friday, June 19th

The American Sound
Saturdays at 6pm & Tuesdays at 7pm with Jennifer Hambrick

In March, The American Sound celebrates Women’s History Month with a special series spotlighting the stories and performances of some of America’s finest women conductors. We’ll enjoy a world-premiere recording by the trailblazing JoAnn Falletta, an American masterpiece conducted by Marin Alsop and a gorgeous performance led by the adventuresome Jeri Lynne Johnson whose Philadelphia-based Black Pearl Chamber Orchestra plays to sell-out crowds. And at the tail end of winter, we’ll warm up with Eric Whitacre's beautiful Five Hebrew Love Songs and relax by the fire with Edward MacDowell’s Fireside Tales.

Fretworks
Saturdays & Wednesdays at 7pm with John Rittmeyer

March brings several unusual, or not often heard works with classical guitar, as well as some old favorites. Also, internationally known harpist Yolanda Kondonassis teams up with Jason Vieaux for a work from their newest recording of music for harp and guitar.

Great Performances at The Met: Il Barbiere di Siviglia
Tuesday, March 24 at 8pm on WOSU Plus
The Met’s effervescent production of Rossini’s classic comedy—featuring some of the most instantly recognizable melodies in opera—stars Isabel Leonard as the feisty Rosina, Lawrence Brownlee as her conspiring flame and Christopher Maltman as the endlessly resourceful and charming barber himself. Michele Mariotti conducts the vivid and tuneful score. “Lawrence Brownlee makes a dashing Almaviva, singing with a focused, ardent tenor.” (The New York Times)
