Downton Abbey Sunday Brunch and Premiere Screening Sunday, December 6, 2015

It's hard to believe that Downton Abbey will soon come to an end after six incredible seasons of drama and intrigue, both upstairs and downstairs. Our Sunday nights will be forever changed without the tales of the noble Crawley family and their devoted staff – from Mary's tumultuous love life and Edith's steady stream of woes, to Bates and Anna's romance and Mr. Carson's stubborn refusal to accept the changing times.

While the premiere episode of Downton Abbey Season Six won't air on WOSU TV until January 3, 2016, WOSU Public Media will get a head start on the celebration with a Sunday Brunch and Premiere Screening at the Lincoln Theatre on Sunday, December 6 from 11:30am-2:30pm.

We invite you to kick off the final season in style by dressing in your 1920s finery and joining us for a delicious brunch served with Mimosas and Bloody Marys, a silent auction, live jazz music, costume contest judged by WOSU on-air personalities, and a chance to picture yourself at Downton Abbey by posing in front of our Highclere Castle photo backdrop. A special advance screening of the first episode of Downton Abbey's final season will follow the reception.

This marks our fourth and final year celebrating the premiere of Downton Abbey with a fundraising event and screening and each year has been more exciting than the last!

Visit wosu.org/downtonabbey or call 614-292-WOSU to purchase your tickets today! A portion of each ticket is tax deductible and your support helps WOSU TV continue to provide quality PBS programming.
