Looking Back

Looking back 50 years to the summer of 1969, it was a time of great achievement and cultural change. Next month our nation commemorates the 50th anniversary of the moon landing and WOSU TV celebrates with the Summer of Space. In August, American Experience looks back 50 years to Woodstock on Woodstock – Three Days that Defined a Generation.

This month we celebrate LGBTQ Pride Month. 50 years ago, on June 28, 1969, police raided the Stonewall Inn. Gay men and women did something they had not done before: they fought back. Stonewall Uprising: American Experience documents the fight that announced that the gay rights movement had arrived.

Before Stonewall there is the little-known story of the federal government’s campaign in the 1950’s to identify and fire all employees suspected of being homosexual. Tens of thousands of government workers lost their jobs. But the actions of the government inadvertently helped ignite the gay rights movement. This story is told on The Lavender Scare, airing June 18 at 9:00pm.

American Masters profiles Tony-winning playwright Terrence McNally. McNally’s 60 years in the theatre, his fight for LGBTQ rights and his talent for launching the careers of Nathan Lane, Doris Roberts and F. Murray Abraham, among others, are chronicled in Terrence McNally: Every Act of Life.

WOSU at the Columbus Arts Festival

June 7–9, Downtown Columbus Riverfront

Welcome to summer, Columbus! Join us downtown on the Scioto Mile as we celebrate arts and culture along with 260+ artists, food, performances and more at the Columbus Arts Festival. WOSU will be broadcasting live from the riverfront Friday, June 7 from 10am-3pm. Meet PBS KIDS costume characters, chat with our staff and on-air talent, and take home fun prizes throughout the weekend.

Politics and a Pint

June 13, Wolf's Ridge Brewing

Join us for another round of lively political conversation in a casual setting. Mike Thompson, host of Columbus on the Record on WOSU TV and Ann Fisher, host of All Sides with Ann Fisher on 89.7 NPR News, break down the political landscape with local experts while you sip on craft brews. The event is free to attend.

PBS KIDS at Storybook Village

June 8, Ohio Village

Bring the kiddos to the Ohio History Connection from 10am–5pm to meet characters from their favorite PBS KIDS shows as they explore Ohio Village.

Replay! Classical 101 Instrument Drive

July 8–13

Share the love of music by contributing to our Replay! instrument drive, now in its third year. Anyone wishing to donate a new or gently used instrument may drop it off during this week at our Fawcett Center offices or the offices of CD 102.5. The instruments will be delivered to Columbus City Schools to be refreshed and distributed to students for use in school music programs.

WOSU Kids Day at the Ohio State Fair

July 25, Ohio Expo Center

Our partnership with the Ohio State Fair continues this year with WOSU Kids Day, featuring PBS KIDS costume character appearances, family-friendly activities and live radio broadcasts from 10am–3pm.

StoryCorps in Columbus

July 2–31

The StoryCorps Mobile Tour rolls into Columbus July 2-31 and we are thrilled to be hosting this storytelling booth on wheels. Don't miss your chance to share your story – StoryCorps appointments will open to the public in mid-June. Keep an eye on your favorite WOSU social channels for details!

Weekend Edition Informs, Relaxes

For most of us, weekends are a time for rest, relaxation, a chance to catch up on chores, and reconnect with family and friends. But there is no rest for big news on Saturday and Sunday. 89.7 NPR News and Weekend Edition are there to help balance our thirst for information with our desire to relax. Each week Weekend Edition (Saturday, Sunday, 8am – 11am) delivers the latest on our community and world.

Take the stories that broke over weekends the last few months. Attorney General William Barr released his four-page summary of the Mueller Report. Terrorists attacked churches and hotels in Sri Lanka, killing scores of people. Palestinians launched rockets into Israel, prompting retaliatory air strikes. Weekend Edition covered it all. Saturday host Scott Simon and Sunday host Lulu Garcia-Navarro spoke with correspondents on the scene to get the latest developments, and then turned to trusted analysts to help us understand the stories' complexities.

Weekend Edition also appreciates Saturday and Sunday morning listeners need a break. While delivering trusted news coverage, Weekend Edition offers a more relaxed approach. It features interviews with artists, writers and musicians. Scott Simon gives us the weekly Saturday sports wrap-up. Lulu Garcia-Navarro helps us solve the Sunday Puzzle with New York Times Puzzlemaster Will Shortz. Both hosts are just as comfortable interviewing world leaders as they are talking with pop music stars.

News is a seven-day-a-week business. Don't miss a thing. Listen to Weekend Edition Saturday and Sundays from 8am to 11am.

Donate Your Used Instruments to Replay!

Supporting music education is an important mission for Classical 101 and WOSU Public Media. Studies have shown that children who participate in music programs perform better, both academically and socially. WOSU's Replay! helps offset the difficulties music educators have in finding adequate resources for their programs.

At Classical 101, we believe that everyone's life is enhanced by music, and learning to play an instrument is particularly enriching for young children. Join WOSU Public Media for our third year of Replay! by donating your used musical instruments to local schools.

There are tons of talented young people in Columbus, but not all of them have access to a musical instrument. So, if you have one lying around your house and nobody's using it, help us get it into the hands of an aspiring musician. We'll be collecting July 8-13 at the WOSU Public Media offices and at CD 102.5.

We know that emotional attachments to our beloved instruments are strong, but how exciting to think that your old violin or clarinet could get a second life! Last year we collected more than 200 instruments, and within a matter of weeks they had been refurbished and were on the field for marching band season. Musical instruments were meant to be played! So round up any instruments gathering dust in your house and donate them during Classical 101's Replay! Instrument Drive, July 8-13.

Learn more about how to donate at wosu.org/replay. And if you don't have an instrument to donate, help us spread the word; there's a printable flyer you can post at your local coffee shop, bookstore, church or any neighborhood gathering spot.
