

ARE YOU DIGI-FIT?

WOSU.ORG/DIGITALWELLNESS

Category: Well-Being

Level: High School 9-12

Area of Focus: Assistive Technology: Great Communication for Everyone

Materials Needed:

Big Idea and The Why (what should students remember after the lesson?):

- Understanding how to select digital and physical tools to effectively communicate and succeed in the classroom.

Mini-Lesson/Content:

- Read Assistive Technology Can Benefit All Students
- Take out your device and explore the assistive technology options
  - iOS
  - Mac
  - Chrome and Chrome OS
  - Android

Discuss or Create:

- Create an accessibility features one-pager for technology used in your classroom that will help all learners

Further Resources/Extending:

- Choosing the Right Technology is Key
- The ISTE \(International Society for Technology in Education\) Teacher Education Network February Newsletter on Assistive Technology February 2019 - TONS OF RESOURCES!!!
- Hidden iPad Features to Help Students with Learning Difficulties