Taken Hostage: An American Experience Special
Monday, November 14 & Tuesday, November 15 at 9pm • details on page 6
As the leaves change and the air gets crisper (and a certain team up North comes to visit), it’s time to reflect and say thank you for the support WOSU Public Media receives from people like you.

Over 33,000 people voluntarily support WOSU. This allows us to bring you entertainment, news, music, and public affairs that reflects your support. Thank you. We could not do it without you.

This month, we have some very special ways you can support WOSU.

On November 10, Classical 101 is partnering with the Mid-Ohio Food Collective for a unique thank you gift opportunity. With your donation of $180, you can choose to have WOSU purchase, on your behalf, “Food for Forty.” “Food for Forty” provides food items to meet the critical needs of our community. Your gift not only ensures the longevity of Classical 101, but also fulfills an immediate need for a family.

Our TV membership drive starts November 27. Look for some great special programming that includes classic holiday music from The Carpenters and Andy Williams, Classic Rock from the Doobie Brothers and The Who and classic travel from Rick Steves.

And don’t forget, Giving Tuesday is November 29. Giving Tuesday is a global generosity movement unleashing the power of radical generosity and is an opportunity for people, not just in central Ohio, but around the world to stand together in unity — to use their individual power of generosity to remain connected and heal. We hope you consider WOSU in your Giving Tuesday plans.

WOSU Public Media does not exist without the generosity of individuals in our community. Thank you so much and enjoy the holiday season.
We’re back!

That’s right, get ready for another season of QED with Dr. B! We are so excited to share more amazing stories of science and innovation with you. Since our last season, I have traveled all around this great country to meet incredible people doing cutting edge research, all in the name of scientific discovery and building a better future.

At COSI, we say “science is everywhere and for everyone,” and we really believe it. QED with Dr. B, and our special Emmy-winning partnership with WOSU, brings that philosophy to life, inviting anyone and everyone into the real-life labs of today’s greatest innovators. Believe me, when you meet these scientists, hear their stories, and see their passion, you will be inspired! After all, SCIENCE is not some distant activity that only happens in an ivory tower – it is the hard work of curious, committed people from all walks of life. It is the pursuit of knowledge, advanced ideals, and revolutionary technology. Science is the reason our lights turn on when we flip a switch, the reason our GPS app guides us to our next step, and the reason humans can have hope in the face of our greatest health challenges.

We won’t spoil all the surprises in store for this new season of QED with Dr. B, but we visited some pretty “out of this world” places (that’s a hint!) and talked to some truly extraordinary people. From groundbreaking researchers right in our own backyard to national labs working at the forefront of Earth’s biggest breakthroughs, we explored art, animals, sports, emotions, coffee – I’ll stop there!

So join us! COSI – the #1 science museum in the nation – and WOSU can’t wait to take you on this journey, because we know you’ll discover that science is for everyone, and that means YOU too! It is Quite Easily Demonstrated!

Sincerely,

Dr. Frederic Bertley – President & CEO, COSI

Civil Debate Series Comes to 89-7 NPR News

Civility. Facts. Critical Thinking. Reason. The basic elements of thoughtful debate often are hard to find in the current political climate. Now 89-7 NPR News listeners can hear them every week. Saturday evenings at 6, WOSU airs Intelligence Squared Debates. Over the years, 89-7 has aired Intelligence Squared Debates on holidays, now listeners can make them part of their weekly listening.

Intelligence Squared provides a model for exchanging ideas with civility and respect in the public square – something America needs now more than ever. Founded in 2006, Intelligence Squared U.S. addresses a fundamental problem in America: the extreme polarization of our nation and our politics.

Moderated by Emmy Award winning ABC News correspondent John Donvan, the Intelligence Squared weekly program presents trusted and lively bi-partisan discussions with world thinkers, policy makers and journalists through a mix of formats:

Agree To Disagree which features a one-on-one debate; Oxford-style which brings on teams of two; and intimate conversations on questions surrounding debate.

Recent debates examined the merits of expanding the US Supreme Court, the legalization of psychedelics, the value of searching for extraterrestrial life, and whether Britain should scrap its monarchy.

Listen to Intelligence Squared Debates Saturdays at 6:00pm or anytime on the WOSU Public Media Mobile App.

November Highlights

A popular Saturday show is expanding! You can now hear Saturday Cinema with host Lynne Warfel for an additional hour. Haven’t discovered this program yet? Check it out Saturdays from 11-1.

Perennial Columbus favorite ProMusica Chamber Orchestra returns to the Classical 101 airwaves this month with a new series of concerts from their most recent season. Boyce Lancaster also returns as host. Be listening Sundays at 1pm.

This month on Symphony Showcase, host Kent Teeters begins a two-month traversal of the entire cycle of Beethoven’s nine symphonies with conductor Paavo Järvi and the German Chamber Philharmonic of Bremen. It’s appointment listening. Thursdays at 7pm and Sundays at 6.

Give Thanks for Music

On Thanksgiving Day, join host Andrea Blain as she takes some time to give thanks and celebrate one of life’s most meaningful gifts: music. It’s “Every Good Thing” — an hour of stories and music to celebrate Thanksgiving, and keep you company while you make your holiday preparations. Be listening at 10am Thanksgiving morning.

Jennifer Hambrick, host of The American Sound, celebrates this most American of holidays with “Autumn Wonders.” The music highlights the natural beauty of an autumn landscape and the spirit of wonder and gratitude with music ranging from early America to contemporary compositions by Jennifer Higdon and Eric Whitacre, including “I thank you God for most this amazing day.” Don’t miss Thanksgiving with The American Sound: Autumn Wonders, November 24 at 11am.

“Giving Thanks” sounds the way Thanksgiving feels—inviting, warm, and festive. No clichés about pilgrims. Host John Birge welcomes special guest Ada Limon, the new Poet Laureate of the US to read her poems and talk about how poetry amplifies gratitude. We’ll also revisit other US Poets Laureate, including Billy Collins, Rita Dove, and Ted Kooser.

“Giving Thanks” provides the perfect atmosphere for Thanksgiving...the warmth of great music and truly memorable words. Tune in at noon on Thanksgiving Day.
